'NO GIMMICKS':

Paule's Sno-Balls celebrates 25 years of cool treats

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE

Editor's Note: The Daily Grind is a monthly feature of the Sea Coast Echo focusing on small businesses in Hancock County.

"It's just a little snow ball stand," Paule's Sno-Balls owner Paul Adams said.

This year, that "little snow ball stand" is celebrating 25 years of providing snow balls "made the right way," to generations.

Adams — who is originally from Bucktown, Louisiana in Jefferson Parish — moved to Hancock County in 1993 because he said he "fell in love with the coast."

"We used to come here on the weekends and go to the Casino Magic," he said. "Then when Sunday came around, we didn't want to go home."

When he opened the snow ball stand, Adams said, he was out of work, but the inspiration came from childhood memories.

"My friends had Sal's Sno-balls when I was growing up," he said. "We used to go over there in the evening time. I was out of work and I prayed and this is what I came up with. This was the Lord answering my prayers."

That sentiment is reflected in the sign that hangs above the entrance to Adams' establishment that states, "Thank you, God."

He opened his snow ball stand in 1999.

Paule's Sno-balls is still located in its original spot on Blue Meadow Road in Bay St. Louis, which Adams said is close to his home.

Representatives from the advocacy organization United in Blue met with law enforcement officers and firefighters at Dan B's Restaurant and Bar in Bay St. Louis last week to garner support for the group's legacy scholarship.

"United in Blue is a voice for our first responders when they cannot have a voice," according to the group's website. "We help assist families of fallen and injured first responders. To be a bridge between the community and first responders."

"The kick-off event for United in Blue at Dan B's was truly a strong showing of support for first responders, to include police, firefighters, and emergency medical services personnel," Bay Police Chief Toby Schwartz said. "It was great seeing first responders and supporters from the surrounding coastal counties at the kick-off event."

The Mississippi Department of Transportation issued a traffic advisory last week reminding motorists that Diamondhead's Exit 16 in the eastbound lane of I-10 would close for six weeks beginning this Wednesday as part of an interchange reconstruction project.

"For drivers, that will mean a bit of a detour is coming up — instead of taking Exit 16 for Diamondhead, we're asking a driver to go to Kiln-DeLisle Exit 20, turn around there, and come back in order to access the Diamondhead exit," MDOT spokesperson Anna Ehrgott said.

"It's an unfortunate thing, but it's our growing pains that we're just going to have to go through,"

Juneteenth Celebration this Friday and Saturday in Waveland

Juneteenth will be celebrated again in Waveland this Friday and Saturday, June 14 and 15.

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

This Friday and Saturday, Waveland Helping Hands Community Organization is hosting its annual Juneteenth celebration.

According to a WHHCO booklet, "Juneteenth is the oldest known celebration commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States. Dating back to 1865, it was on June 19 that the Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Note that this was two-and-a-half years after President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation — which had become official January 1, 1863. The Emancipation Proclamation had little impact on the Texans due to the minimal number of Union troops to enforce the new Executive Order. However, with the surrender of General Lee in April of 1865, and the arrival of General Granger's regiment, the forces were finally strong enough to influence and overcome the resistance."

The two-day event begins Friday, June 14 from 3 to 8 p.m. at Martin Luther King Park, located at 442 Herlihy St. in Waveland. There will be food, music, booths, and a play area for children. On Friday, music will be provided by DJ Benny G.

On Saturday, the event begins at 3 p.m. and runs until 8 p.m. On Saturday, music will be provided by Supaman MD.

Clarence Singleton-Harris with Helping Hands said the event is about "empowerment."

"We have entertainment and offer things that will empower the community here to help

Bay breaks ground on pickleball courts at McDonald Park

Photo submitted
Last week, officials in Bay St. Louis celebrated the groundbreaking on the pickleball courts at McDonald Park.

SPECIAL TO THE ECHO

Thursday marked a momentous occasion for the City of Bay St Louis as shovels hit the ground to construct two anticipated public pickleball courts at McDonald Park.

Unlike conventional paving projects, the meticulous process involved in building pickleball courts, including the necessary concrete curing time for the playing surface, extends the timeline for completion. However, with dedication and precision, the courts are slated to be fully operational by the fall of 2024. This addition to McDonald Park will soon provide residents with a first-class venue to play the rapidly expanding sport of pickleball.

"Pickleball courts is something Bay St Louis has been talking about trying to construct to for a few years. The City Council and I have been looking forward to this moment, and I might have to get some pickleball paddles for myself. We appreciate everyone's patience during construction and look forward to seeing everyone out there enjoying the new courts soon." said Bay St. Louis Mayor Mike Favre.

Waveland discusses grant possibility, routine business

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE

During last week's Waveland Board of Mayor and Aldermen meeting, Mayor Jay Trapani said he applied for a community service grant through Congressman Mike Ezell's office.

Trapani said there were about 64 applications and Ezell chose about 15 and Waveland's was one of them.

"I applied for $3.679 million to redo the Kiln-Waveland Cutoff Road," Trapani said. "This is a request. Each of the congressmen submits their request and then it has to be approved by Congress. Last year, the budget wasn't approved, it usually gets approved in October, but didn't get said, there wasn't much of a response.

"Everybody drove by," he said. "The second year, that's when they started coming."

Adams said he has a lot of regulars, who return year after year for the frozen treat.

"They say they're the best," he said. "And I know they are because I've tried them all."

Adams said his favorite flavor is sugar-free chocolate.

Since day one, Adams has used flavors from Southern Snow, which is based in Belle Chasse, Louisiana.

"Southern Snow is the best," Adams said.

Perhaps, just as familiar to regular customers, is Adams' longtime employee Sarah Johnson, who has been with him for about 24 years.

"Sarah's the best," Adams said. "Sarah, she's number one. Sarah is the brains of this operation. I just show up."

When Sarah Johnson was about 15 years old, she said, she used to visit Paule's every day "begging him for the job."

"He kept telling me 'no' until I was persistent enough and he hired me," she said. "It's been on and off, but every year, I work, only on the weekends."

Johnson said she wanted to work there so she could start making her own money and eat snow balls.

Johnson described Paule as a "great guy and the best boss."

Adams' wife Shere, along with Cindy Butler, fill in when Johnson is unavailable, he said.

There are 34 flavors to choose from and Adams and Johnson both agreed that wedding cake and tiger blood (coconut and strawberry) are the most popular flavors.

Adams' sentiment is reflected in the sign that hangs above the entrance to his establishment that states, "Thank you, God.

Guests can also order snow shakes from the menu.

Add-ons include condensed milk, ice cream, and cream flavor. Sugar-free flavors are also offered.

"Our snow balls are made the right way," Adams said. "With no gimmicks and at a reasonable price."

Adams also takes his snow balls on the road. He is available for parties.

In addition, he takes his mobile snow ball stand down the beach, up to McLeod Park, and down the seawall.

Paule's Sno-Balls survived Hurricane Katrina in 2005, and Adams said he gave snow balls to first-responders.

He reopened the stand the next summer.

"I could never be here for 25 years without Joy Moran, my landlord," Adams said. "She is the best."

In addition to the excitement of the sweet treats, guests also look forward to the ringing of the bell.

"Every tip gets the bell rung," Adams said.

Both Adams and Johnson said they have seen generations of families patron the snow ball stand each summer.

"One of the things that I see," Johnson said, "is the generations of families. People when we first started, they came here as kids, and now they're bringing their children. And everybody loves Paule. There are certain times when some of the children pull up and they notice that Paule's not here and I'm here. And they're like 'where's Paule?'"

"I love working here," Adams said. "I like the kids."

Johnson added that "Paule remembers everybody."

"If you haven't tried Paule's, you're missing out," Johnson said. "You know what you're getting when you come here every time."

Paule's Sno-balls is open Monday through Friday from 2 to 6 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 6 p.m. His season begins at the end of March and closes at the end of September.

Paule's is located at 619 Blue Meadow Rd.

Waveland Elementary proudly announces its selection as a recipient of the prestigious grant awarded by the Laura Bush Foundation for America's Libraries. This grant signifies a significant stride forward, promising a wealth of opportunities for the students of Waveland Elementary.

Waveland Elementary School was one of 200 schools from 40 states across the country to receive a $5,000 grant through the Laura Bush Foundation for America's Libraries. This year, the Laura Bush Foundation for America's Libraries awarded $1 million in library grants.

Many of the libraries will use the funds to update and diversify their collections.

"When a child opens a book, they open up a world of possibilities. I'm grateful this year's Laura Bush Foundation grants give librarians the opportunity to update their collections, and they give students the chance to find a new genre or subject that interests them," Mrs. Laura Bush said.

At the annual Laura Bush Book Club event, which is part of Engage at the Bush Center series presented by NexPoint, and supported by H-E-B, Mrs. Bush revealed her 2024 summer reading list, which includes recommendations for young readers through middle schoolers. The list contains classics like The Little Engine That Could as well as new releases like Love Comes First, written by Jenna Bush Hagar and Barbara Pierce Bush."Instilling a love of reading is one of the greatest gifts we can give our children," Mrs. Bush said. "This year's reading list celebrates the best of summer – endless days, time with family, and watching the Olympics. I encourage all parents and caregivers to get outside in the fresh summer air, and enjoy these classic stories together."

Grant applications for the 2024-2025 school year will open in late 2024. Visit bushcenter.org/laurabush-foundation to learn more.

Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service.
Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display.
We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaise Avenue and Main Street.

"We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

An amusing day

Last weekend, we finally got to have a proper nephew and Cass Cass day.

He requested a day at the arcade, so I decided to take him to the Escape family entertainment center at Margaritaville in Biloxi.

Well, when we pulled up to the resort, our plans quickly evolved to include the Paradise Pier when the nephew spotted the large Ferris wheel.

He has never forgotten how much I loathe Ferris wheels, after a trip to a small amusement park in Texas for my birthday in 2019.

STAFF COLUMN
BY CASSANDRA FAVRE

I've always liked the most thrilling rides, but consider the Ferris wheel a mortal enemy. The nephew finds this amusing.

So, needless to say, our day not only included the arcade, but the little amusement park, as well.

During the ride on the Ferris wheel, the nephew kept saying "encouraging" phrases like "It's not so bad," "Hold on for your life," "Once you close your eyes, it might not be so bad," and "Never underestimate the power of positive thinking."

I also learned that many of the rides that spin you around or take you up real high back and forth are NOT for me anymore. The overwhelming nausea was not fun at all. Now, I could ride the small rollercoaster with no problem, but, sadly, my days of riding the most adventurous of rides might be over.

As a child, I used to drag my father onto every ride during our family vacations to theme parks such as Disney World, Six Flags, and Opryland.

He was such a trooper about it and I think he enjoyed them about as much as a I did.

Now, after being my nephew's designated ride buddy, I understand some of what he went through.

With Father's Day approaching this weekend, I also spent some of the day at the park reflecting on those theme park moments with my dad. I'll never forget them, as they are some of the happiest moments of my childhood. I'm grateful that he — despite maybe his own discomfort — took the opportunity to create those memories with me and ensure I had a good time.

It is my hope that my nephew remembers these times and I will be purchasing a ton of Dramamine before our next theme park adventure.

The arcade is huge and thankfully air-conditioned. He had a blast jumping around from game to game. His favorite activity was the virtual reality games. It

Hancock History: Antoine's Restaurant

Over the last four hundred years, the South has possessed the most distinctive character and tradition of any of the other regions of the United States. New Orleans and the Mississippi Gulf Coast were originally settled by French immigrants who made an important contribution to our cultural heritage. Cuisine or cooking is part of that heritage and is distinctive in our locale.

Creole and Cajun cuisine share French origins, but existed in two populations that came to different parts of Louisiana. Our interest in this article is Creole cuisine which was first popular in the French Quarter in New Orleans in the Eighteenth Century. Creole cooking is popular on the Mississippi Gulf Coast today, and many of the receipts created in old French Creole restaurants like Antoine's can be found on the menus of many local eateries in Hancock County.

Antoine's Restaurant was started by a French immigrant from Marseilles, France, Antoine Alciatore (1825-1877). He was the son of a wool merchant. Antoine was apprenticed to a kitchen at the Hotel de Noailles where he became qualified as a chef and learned the secret of Pommes de Terre Soufflees (puffed potatoes) from the great chef, Collinet. Antoine boarded a ship to relocate to America. On the passage over the Atlantic Ocean, he met a young Alsatian girl, Julie Freyss. Antoine told her he was going to New Orleans. She stayed in New York City with her parents until Antoine found his fortune there. She married him five years later.

Antoine loved New Orleans because this was a city that spoke his native tongue in that era. His first business was a small pension (boarding house and restaurant) on Rue St. Louis. Antoine and Julie worked the pension and Antoine's fame as a chef spread.

He brought to his restaurant La Cuisine Francaise but created new dishes that embraced the products like local seafood popular with the people in the area. Julie and Antoine had seven children. Antoine died of tuberculosis at age fifty-two. Julie, now known as Madame Antoine, carried on the restaurant after her husband's death. Their son, Jules, went to Paris to learn his family trade. Jules deserves most of the credit that made Antoine's Restaurant a popular, famous, and well-respected institution. Jules created the recipes for Oyster Rockefeller, Oysters Bienville, and Trout Marguery. Antoine's is the oldest restaurant in America owned by one family. The Union Oyster House in Boston (1826) is the oldest restaurant, but it had several different owners.

Message from the Mayor: Wednesday at the Depot

Wednesday at the Depot

If you haven't been to Wednesday at the Depot, you're missing out on something good. It all began at the start of the year when Hancock County Tourism and the Old Town Merchant Association collaborated on an idea to host a band at the Bay St. Louis Train Depot Grounds every third Wednesday, giving locals a chance to come together and experience the charm of Old Town Bay St. Louis.

The idea has been a resounding success. The first two Wednesdays at the Depot have seen an incredible turnout, with crowds of locals arriving via foot, bike, golf-cart, and car to enjoy the festivities. My wife and I had the pleasure of attending both events in April and May, and the energy was simply electric. These are the kinds of experiences that make Bay St. Louis such a delightful place to call home. Although Wednesday at the Depot officially runs from 5-8 PM, I've noticed many, including myself, stopping at a few Old Town Bay St Louis restaurants beforehand, adding to the evening's enjoyment.

I want to thank McKenzey Northington, Hancock County Tourism, the Old Town Merchant Association, and all the sponsors who have made this event possible. Their efforts have created an event where our community can come together, reconnecting with friends and neighbors we don't get to see often enough.

Wednesday at the Depot rents the depot grounds just like any other event, and for the first three months, Councilman Gene Hoffman, Councilman Josh DeSalvo, and I sponsored the rental of the grounds. If you want Wednesday at the Depot to continue, I recommend reaching out to Hancock County Tourism to see how you can help with the event.

Let's keep Bay St. Louis a great place to live, work, play, and pray, and I look forward to seeing you at the next Wednesday at the Depot event on June 19th.

Pafford EMS in Bay St Louis

You may have noticed a Pafford EMS ambulance frequently parked outside the Bay St. Louis Fire Station on Main Street. This is because Pafford EMS, the new ambulance provider for Hancock County, has started leasing space at the fire station. Thanks to the advocacy efforts of both the Bay St. Louis Fire Department and the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, this move guarantees swift and efficient medical response for Bay St. Louis residents and visitors. With Pafford EMS now stationed here, it is reassuring that close medical assistance is readily available to support our dedicated Bay St. Louis first responders in serving our community.

President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. Approves Mississippi Disaster Declaration

SPECIAL TO THE ECHO

President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. on Monday declared that a major disaster exists in the State of Mississippi and ordered Federal assistance to supplement state, tribal, and local recovery efforts in the areas affected by severe storms, straight-line winds, tornadoes, and flooding from April 8 to April 11, 2024.

The President's action makes Federal funding available to affected individuals in the counties of Hancock, Hinds, Humphreys, Madison, Neshoba, and Scott.

Assistance can include grants for temporary housing and home repairs, low-cost loans to cover uninsured property losses, and other programs to help individuals and business owners recover from the effects of the disaster.

Federal funding is also available on a cost-sharing basis for hazard mitigation measures statewide.

Mr. Jeremy C. Slinker of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has been appointed to coordinate Federal recovery operations in the affected areas.

Additional designations may be made at a later date if requested by the state and warranted by the results of further damage assessments.

Residents and business owners who sustained losses in the designated areas can begin applying for assistance at www.DisasterAssistance.gov, by calling 800-621-FEMA (3362), or by using the FEMA App. Anyone using a relay service, such as video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or others, can give FEMA the number for that service.

was so fun watching him experience that.

It was a long and unbearably hot day, but it was worth it. Through my bouts of nausea, annoyance at the unruly children, and copious amounts of sweat, I enjoyed watching him have such a good time and was glad I got the chance to take him.

Apparently, he kept my sister up until about midnight recounting the events of the day.

They left on Sunday to begin their newest adventure in south Texas, which is way closer than Alaska and gives us more opportunities for visits and nephew and Cass Cass days.

I would also like to take this opportunity to wish the fathers and father figures out there a Happy Father's Day, especially my own daddy, who is getting better by the day, which makes each day even more special.

Thanks for making my life good, Dad. Thanks for always supporting me in my ventures, for being the best dad I could have hoped for, and for being the best amusement park ride buddy.

ter Rockefeller and Café Brulet. These dishes are also served today at local restaurants on the Gulf Coast. Antoine's Restaurant does not serve any Cajun or Italian food. For most of its existence, the menu was only available in the French language. The interior décor is traditional Parisian and dining in the main room is a déjà vu historical experience.

A great summer read is a small novelplay, "Obligations" by Al Karon. This story takes place during an evening dinner in 1976 at Antoine's Restaurant. The supper talk contains a love story about two characters, Rome Aime and Penny Weaver. This couple grew up in Waveland, MS, and there are familiar anecdotes of their experiences growing up in Hancock County in the 1950's. The dialogue also includes considerable history about Waveland and New Orleans since two of the diners in the restaurant are Yankees from Philadelphia who know nothing of our history or culture. As lagniappe, the interesting menu of the restaurant is presented within the dialogue with the French waiter.

My prescription for any case of summer doldrums, is to pick up a copy of "Obligations." After you read it, drive down to the French Quarter in New Orleans and go to Antoine's Restaurant for dinner. La sauce c'est tout (the sauce is everything!)

Fishing on the seawall was his absolute favorite hobby, whether he was catching fish or not. Tinkering was a close second as he was good at putting things together to make them work.

A graveside memorial will be held on Monday, June 17, 2024 at 12:00 p.m. at Garden of Memories.

ROBERT HUGH HETRICK (HUGH)

Robert Hugh Hetrick (Hugh) passed away on June 7, 2024, following a brief illness. He was born in Hattiesburg, Mississippi March 31, 1940, to Reverend John Harold Hetrick and Lessie Turner Hetrick. He was raised in Mississippi and primarily grew up in Ocean Springs where his father was the minister of St. Paul Methodist Church for 8 years. He enjoyed sailing and swimming in the Mississippi Sound and Back Bay.

Hugh graduated from Copiah-Lincoln High School in 1958. He enlisted in the AirForce in 1961 and was trained in data processing. After four years of service, he entered civilian life and worked for State Farm in Jackson as a computer operator. He then went to Houston, Texas in 1968 to work for Lockhead at the NASA Space Center as a computer operator during the first moon landing. He met his wife, Ethel Edna Wiest, at a Methodist Church single's coffee club in 1969 and they were married on February 14, 1970. They moved from Houston in 1971 to Dallas area to attend school. Hugh used his GI Bill to obtain a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Technology in 1973 and a master's degree in education in 1974 from the University of North Texas. He taught industrial technology at the junior high and high school level in Louisiana, Arizona, and Texas until retiring in 2000. The highlight of his teaching career was a NASA Educational Leadership training program at Edwards Air Force base in California. He was at the time the only industrial arts teacher in Texas to have been accepted in the program. His 8th grade students were building robots and flying drones in the 1990's.

Hugh was also a fantastic gardener. He and Ethel moved to Waveland, Mississippi in 2005, to be near his beloved Mississippi Sound. He loved growing roses and having a vegetable garden. He also continued his childhood passion for building RC model airplanes. He and Ethel enjoyed camping throughout the country form Maine to Key West, Florida to Glacier National Park in Montana as well as traveling to Europe and China.

Hugh was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife Ethel Hetrick; his two sons, John E. Hetrick (Maryann)pf Irving, Texas and Samuel L. Hetrick of Little Elm, Texas; and two grandchildren, John and William Hetrick. He is also survived by his three brothers, John Harold Hetrick, Jr. (Margarette) of Atlanta, Georgia, Dr. Thomas Henry Hetrick (Linda) of Knoxville, Tennessee, and Gilbert Harvey Hetrick (Diane) of Arlington, Texas; and many nieces and nephews.

approved until March. But we have this out there and it would be unbelievable if we could get this because we'll dress up Kiln-Waveland Cutoff with sidewalks, new drainage, everything."

In other action:

The board approved a motion to adopt the "Fallen Officer/Firefighter Policy," — Ordinance #385 — whereas the city will be "authorized to pay, for up to 60 days, the full regular compensation of any first-responder employed by the city of Waveland who protects the interests of the city and is killed in the line of duty." A copy of the full ordinance will be printed in the June 13 edition of the Sea Coast Echo in the classified/legals section.

The board approved Ordinance #384, "adopting and enacting a new code for the city of Waveland, Mississippi; providing for the repeal of certain ordinances not included therein; providing a penalty for the violation thereof; providing for the manner of amending such code; and providing when such code and this ordinance shall become effective."

City attorney Ronnie Artigues said Ordinance #384 "confirms any ordinances prior to the rework that y'all have done which are superseded by this rework, which basically took all of the ordinances that y'all have had on the books and brought them all current. It went through and made sure there's no conflicting ones and all this is doing is ratifying that if there were any conflicting ordinances, the most current ones control and that they've been codified in this. And it just states that the most current ones and the ones that are in the current rewrite — you didn't change any substance — you just reorganized your existing ordinances and eliminated where there were any conflicts."

Artigues added that this dates back to a 2022 contract with CivicsPlus LLC for this work. Ordinance #384 will be published in the June 13 edition of the Sea Coast Echo in the classified/legals section.

The next meeting is scheduled for June 19 at 6:30 p.m.

• EXIT

Diamondhead City Manager Jon McCraw said. "Unfortunately, it's going to affect a lot of our businesses, restricting access."

McCraw said that the owners of businesses such as Park Ten Lanes and Ramada Inn have said they've suffered cancellations because people don't want to have to deal with the traffic.

The Exit 16 ramp is part of a $17 million MDOT project awarded to T.L. Wallace Construction, Inc. earlier this year.

MDOT is removing the existing ramp and replacing it with a two-lane ramp in order to ease traffic on Gex Drive. Before the city started blocking off the left-hand turn from the I-10 ramp during peak hours, forcing drivers to turn right and go through a round-about, traffic would stack up on the exit road out into the interstate down to the Jourdan River Bridge.

"Luckily, they're doing the (east ramp) first," McCraw said. "We feel like that's the best one to get done while school's closed, so traffic won't have to be delayed on that ramp once school starts back up."

MDOT is widening I-10 to six lanes from the Wolf River bridge to Exit 24 at Menge Avenue, where the new Bucc-ee's Travel Center is being built.

In addition to widening the east-bound Exit 16 ramp, the project will also include construction of roundabouts on both ramps and one at the intersection of Gex and Aloha Drives; and a multimodal lane on the east side of Gex Drive for golf carts. The multimodal lane will begin near the Waffle House and extend down Yacht Club Drive.

MDOT has detour signage in place, encouraging motorists to either detour via Exit 20 and merge onto I-10 West to access Exit 16, or to seek alternate routes.

McCraw said the city's police and fire departments have been discussing how they'll handle emergencies on the interstate during the construction work.

"We're not sure exactly what's going to happen as far as the travel and traffic, but we're going to be monitoring as best we can," McCraw said. "When it's all sad and done, it will be a beautiful thing. As for right now … it's growing pains."

Father's Day

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. Gerald Richardson, D. MIN.

This coming Sunday, June 16, is Father's Day. Like many people, I have received, and benefited from, important male role models in my life. In one way or another many of these men were instrumental in assisting me as I came to maturity. My own father was the first man to provide me with guidance and support. His memory remains a valued part of my growth and development as a human being. My father-in-law was a later, but significant influence in my life. Both of them offered support, care, and help, especially in my young adult years. Even when we did not always see things the same way, there was never a question of their goodwill and desire for my well-being. Their influence was profound.

There were other, mostly older men, who provided positive support and models of strength and character. Uncles, older friends, and especially a senior pastor for whom I worked at two church appointments in my early years in the clergy, were all influential to me as I grew into maturity.

It is probably no surprise that as I consider the importance of Father's Day, my thoughts go directly to my own experience as a father. I have two sons who are now well into adulthood. The older son is a partner in a consulting firm which works across the United States promoting causes and people who strive to make the world a better place for all of us. He does it well, and his work brings me great pride. I find that I sometimes have to bridle my enthusiasm for the significant impact that he brings to our social and political culture. He has given us three grandsons who bring much joy to our lives, and we relish the opportunities that we have to spend time with them.

The younger son is an Episcopal priest. He serves in the northeastern part of the country, currently in New Jersey. He is a strong and effective leader in his congregation, his community, and in the larger church in which he is a part. Due to the wonder of the internet, my wife and I usually are able to watch his service on Sunday morning before we attend our own current church. We are very proud of the work that he does and of the leadership which he provides to the Christian community at large. He has served on national and international boards within the church, and his voice has made, and continues to make, a difference.

Pondering my role as their father is by far the most important consideration on Father's Day. I know that I have been far from perfect. I also know, (and I believe that they do as well) that my love and joy for them is unbounded. They have given me fun, joy, challenge, and at times, frustration, but always, they have been pure gift. They remain so to this day.

My hope and prayer for all fathers, and for daughters and sons as well, is that they remain close to each other. Keep the ties strong. Celebrate each other. Forgive each other. Be thankful for the blessings of your relationship. If it needs to improve, work on it. Relationships are temporary. Memories are forever. Make them good ones.

Happy Father's Day!

He's a big favorite among his doggie pals because he simply gets along with everyone. Our staff and volunteers love him, as he is so good, sweet-natured, and lots of fun to play with. And he sits on command. Smart cookie! He would be a cool best buddy for kids of any age, or a BFF for a single person, couple, or active retirees. He walks great on a leash and harness, and seems to keep his kennel clean. We highly recommend Harvey as a family pet or best friend kind of doggie. Come meet this cutie, and you'll know why he's so popular. Our visiting hours are Mon, Wed-Fri 10am-3:30pm, or you may call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule an appointment. Father's Day history

Each year, the third Sunday in June is a time to pay homage to fathers and the millions of other men who have stepped into the role of father. While it may seem as though Father's Day has been around forever, it didn't become a nationally recognized holiday in the United States until 1972, when President Richard Nixon signed Joint Resolution 187 into law.

Many thank Sonora Smart Dodd for making Father's Day happen. In 1909, while attending a Mother's Day sermon in church, Dodd felt fathers were equally deserving of praise. To honor her own father, a Civil War veteran and widower who raised six children alone, Dodd petitioned for a Father's Day on June 5th (the anniversary of her father's death) in her native Spokane, Wash. The celebration was deferred to the third Sunday in June. Another account says Grace Golden Clayton came up with the idea for a Father's Day in 1908 in Fairmont, West Virginia. Clayton was inspired to celebrate fathers after 361 local men perished in a deadly mine explosion. Clayton brought the idea up to the minister of her local church.

Historians say that Father's Day may even be a much older idea. St. Joseph's Day, which was celebrated each year on March 19 in Catholic nations of Europe since the medieval era, and later elsewhere around the world, commemorates Joseph, the husband of Mary and father figure to Jesus. It was said that Joseph should be held up as the ideal example of fatherhood. The Coptic Orthodox Church celebrates St. Joseph's Day on July 20. In the Orthodox Christian Church, the second Sunday before the Nativity is celebrated as the Sunday of the Forefathers — celebrating all of Jesus' male ancestors, with an emphasis on Abraham, the patriarch of the Jewish faith.

Memorable ways to celebrate Dad this Father's Day

Dads do a lot for their families, and Father's Day is the perfect time to acknowledge those efforts. The days when dads would receive a colorful necktie for Father's Day are largely (and, for fathers, thankfully) a relic of the past. Modern Father's Day celebrations tend to involve more careful planning, and the following are some ways to make this year's day for dads one to remember.

• Take Dad on a tour through his own history. The popularity of genealogy has skyrocketed over the last decade-plus, as various firms have made it easier than ever for individuals to trace their family histories. If Dad counts himself among the millions across the globe interested in their family histories, moms and kids can work together to create a virtual tour through that history. Present the history as a printed book or as a video, sharing interesting things you learned about Dad's ancestors but also highlighting key moments in his life. This presentation can be accompanied by a subscription to a genealogy service and a tour of some of Dad's childhood haunts before the family enjoys brunch or dinner in the neighborhood where Dad grew up.

• Take to the great outdoors. Father's Day is celebrated in mid-June, making the day a perfect time to enjoy the great outdoors (weather permitting). Plan a day around Dad's favorite outdoor activity. If Dad is an avid fisherman, book a family outing on a charter boat so Dad can focus on catching fish and not navigating. If Dad loves being in natural settings, camp out the night before Father's Day so he can wake up to the sound of birds chirping in the crisp morning air. If Dad has a favorite baseball team, take him out to the ballgame so he can soak up some Father's Day sun.

• Book a private chef. If Dad has a fascination with food, perhaps nothing can make Father's Day more memorable than a delicious meal served by a private chef. Private chefs will do all the work, giving moms and kids more time to spend with Dad throughout the day, and then the whole family can enjoy a special meal made by someone whose specialty is crafting delicious dinners. Offerings vary, but many private chefs handle all the cooking and cleaning. Identify Dad's favorite dish and then look for a chef who specializes in that type of cuisine.

• Appeal to Dad's inner adventurer. Some Dads may just want to relax on Father's Day, while others may prefer a more adventurous celebration. If Dad falls into the latter group, book a fun and adventurous activity the whole family can enjoy together. A kayaking trip, a skydiving session, a round of paintball, or even tickets to a rock concert on Father's Day weekend can connect Dad with his inner adventurer.

There's no shortage of ways for families to make this Father's Day one Dad won't soon forget.

SHUCKERS WIN SERIES AGAINST MONTGOMERY

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The Biloxi Shuckers used a fantastic debut by Logan Henderson in Double-A and a multiple hit/RBI game from Noah Campbell to win the series against the Montgomery Biscuits with an 8-2 decision on Sunday.

The victory pushes the Shuckers to 23-33 overall as Montgomery fell to 32-25.

Biloxi took a 4-0 lead in the first inning highlighted by Campbell's three-run moonshot to rightfield.

Henderson held the Biscuits scoreless in his debut as he went to the dugout after the fifth inning. It was his longest outing since September 2023 when he went six innings for the Carolina Mudcats. Henderson tallied four hits and three strikeouts with no runs.

The Shuckers added another run in the fourth inning when Zavier Warren smacked a solo homerun.

In the sixth inning, Andy Yerzy collected an RBI single that pushed the score to 6-0. Montgomery scored on two RBI singles in the bottom of the sixth inning to make the score 6-2.

The Shuckers added two more runs in the top of the ninth inning including an RBI single from Campbell to make the final score.

In the game, Campbell went 3-for-4 with four RBI, a home run, and a double. In the series, Campbell was 9-for-18 at the plate including three doubles, a home run, and nine RBI.

The Shuckers are back in Biloxi this week with a series against the Tennessee Smokies. First pitch for games tonight and Friday is set for 6:35 p.m., 6:05 p.m. on Saturday, and 5:05 p.m. on Sunday.

• BLUE

Schwartz was one of several local officials speaking on behalf of United in Blue at last week's meeting. He was joined by Chief Assistant District Attorney Ian Baker; Waveland Mayor Jay Trapani; Waveland Alderwoman Rhonda Aime-Gamble; Bay Fire Chief Monty Strong; Jason Piazza of the Waveland Fire Department; former Bay St. Louis Councilman Larry Smith; and Ian Estorffe, a veteran law enforcement officer and the father of fallen Bay St. Louis police Officer Branden Estorffe.

Aime-Gamble said United in Blue was instrumental in getting a Mississippi Senate Bill passed which Gov. Tate Reeves signed into law this past April, allowing cities to create an ordinance to be able to pay first-responders' families up to 60 days' pay quickly after a first-responder is killed in the line of duty.

"When an officer dies in the line of duty, or a firefighter dies in the line of duty," their families may eventually get an insurance payment or some other compensation, she said, but in the first few days and weeks, those families face huge expenses that they don't have the resources to pay for.

"This bill was designed to help those in need in that area," she said.

Trapani said he was proud that the city of Waveland was the first city in the state to adopt a resolution to accept the bill.

United in Blue "is a great organization to get involved in," Baker said. "Any time an officer falls in the line of duty, we (at the D.A.'s office) feel it the same way that officer's agency feels it."

Schwartz said Bay St. Louis Mayor Mike Favre "has always supported the law enforcement community. When our department experienced what we experienced (in December 2022 when Sgt. Steven Robin and Officer Branden Estorffe were killed), our mayor stepped up."

Schwartz said United in Blue will host a Coast-wide event in Biloxi later this month.

"On Saturday, June 22 at the Golden Nugget Casino, Biloxi, United in Blue will highlight the lives for fallen first responders," Schwartz said, including Officer Robert S. McKeithen-Biloxi PD; Lieutenant Michael A. Boutte, Sr. -Hancock County SO; Sergeant Steven M. Robin - Bay St Louis PD; Officer Branden P. Estorffe-Bay St Louis PD; and Deputy Sheriff Gerald Malone-George County SO.

"Legacy scholarships are being established in their names and will be available for application by active police officers and their family members," Schwartz said. "This will be one of many great things to come from United in Blue as they assist the families of hurt and fallen first responders."
